Funeral of James Danze.

The funeral of the late James Danze was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson Friday afternoon. Rev. Fr. McDaid delivered the sermon and the Yeoman lodge held the ritualistic services. The floral tributes were beautiful and were largely of designs, the most elaborate being white carnations arranged to represent a ball diamond with the bases, home plate, pitcher's and catcher's positions in pink and red flowers, this being sent by the ball team. After the service members of the Yeoman lodge marched through the room and each placed a white flower on the casket. The room and lawn were crowded with sorrowing friends and lodge members who paid the last earthly respect to the deceased.

Opie Read to Visit North Platte.

As you go down to our library and look over the long shelves of books do you realize that they represent the best thoughts of the present age as well as of the past? True, we learn from books stories of the past but in them we also read the records of thinking people of today.

We often wonder if it will be our good fortune ever to see the writer in person, and unfortunately, too seldom it is.

We are to have that pleasure this summer at North Platte. Opie Read, whose stories are known to all patrons of the city library will be here for a day during Chautauqua.

Physically Opie Read is a giant; he is considerably over six feet tall. And his disposition is as sunny as his stories are cheerful. We welcome you, creator of "Lim Jacklin!"

The Age of Young Men—Glenn Frank.

A comparative summary of the members of congress shows that a younger class of men are at Washington than were there a few decades ago.

In a large measure this is true in the business world. It is evident that young men can more readily adapt themselves to the vicissitudes of the twentieth century.

And that is why there is a place for the young men on the lecture platform today. That is one reason why Glenn Frank is so popular as a lecturer. He sees life as the young see it and yet his observations are as accurate as his startling conclusions are justifiable.

Older men agree with him too. They recognize his masterful ability and appreciate his keen insight. They have demonstrated this by making him alumni secretary of Northwestern university and by tendering him the presidency of an eastern state university, which he refused, choosing rather to spend a part of his time lecturing.

Lewis Martini is confined to the house by attack of typhoid fever.

Johannid Lantz returned Saturday from Paxton where he spent several weeks with his grand parents.

Miss Elizabeth Brodbeck and sister went to Melrose Saturday to visit their sister Mrs. Bert Culton for a couple of weeks.

Woman Cures Horse Colic.

The men were away as usual. The horse was bad. A lone woman could not "drench" in the old way. She called up a neighbor and her men were away—but: "We have Farris Colic Remedy that you drop on the horse's tongue and the horse was well when the men came home. Moral: Get Farris Colic Remedy so the women can cure horse colic. We sell it at 50c a bottle on the Money Back Plan. Sold by A. F. Fink.

RESULTS TELL

There can be no doubt about the Results in North Platte.

Results tell the tale. All doubt is removed.

The testimony of a North Platte citizen

Can easily be investigated.

What better proof can be had.

George V. Weinberger, 109 West 9th street, North Platte, Neb., says:

"Some years ago I became afflicted with kidney trouble and suffered from agonizing pains through my back.

I gradually grew worse, became stiff and on account of losing my rest at night, was all run-down. My kidneys did not do their work properly.

Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured them from McDonnell & Graves' Drug Store, (now Schiller & Co's.) After I had taken six boxes I was cured."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Weinberger had. Foster-Milburn Co., Prop., Buffalo, N. Y.

Prevent Hog Cholera

The B. A. Thomas Hog Powder has a record of 95 per cent cures of Hog Cholera. If you feed your hogs as directed, you never fear hog disease. And the directions are very simple, just about what you are doing plus a few cents worth of B. A. Thomas Hog Powder in the feed twice a week.

Usually, though, Cholera gets in before we know it. Then it requires close attention to each hog—each hog must be dosed—and if you will dose them as directed, you will save better than 90 per cent. If you don't, the B. A. Thomas medicine costs you nothing. We—not some distant manufacturer—pay your money back. Sold by A. F. Fink.
